MESSES, EDITORS: have opened a co-operative store at about three thousand dollars, but befive to ten thousand dollars invested I see no reason to justify the predic tion that it will be a failure. It is supported by some of the best men of the county, and an interest for the well being of the Order, without any other consideration, will bring to it the patronage of all the patrons of the county. They start out under favor-able colors. W. T. Powers is the general shipping agent for the Order n this county.

I note the following deaths of reent date in this county: Mrs. Rebec n Pickins, aged 80 years; J. H. use's wife; two infa y of Mr. Horiey and Winfield Scott. Marriages: Aiack Stratton to Miss Petty; Mr. Williams, of East Hardin, to Miss Holman. Samuel Curtis returned last week

rom Texas, wibther he removed last days. Prof. Jacobus S. Jones' first session at Adamsville Academy will lose the last of November. He has and a flourishing school, and has rendered universal satisfaction. He is a young man of fine literary attainents and great promise. that he will continue another term at Adamsville, Dr. May Sanders has been suffering recently from hemor-rhage. He had located in Perry coun-ty, and was doing a fine practice; he was compelled to return home. Rev. W. T. Harris preached his farewell sermon to the people of this section last Sunday at Gilchrist's Church, in McNairy. He is universally loved by these people, and they would appear with a united voice for his continu ance on this division of work, Wild-O'-THE-WISP.
